HOW TO USE

- To turn on, push the button on the right above the LELO logo. It should start vibrating straight away. Then, to adjust the power, hold the right hand button to increase and the left button to decrease.
- Cycle through the settings by pressing the button on the right and holding it down for 2 seconds. The vibration will change when you release the button. Pressing the left button once on any mode will revert you straight to continuous vibration mode.
- To turn it off, press the left button to decrease the power all the way, and then hold for 2 seconds. It will turn off when you release the button.
- To lock LILY™ 2 simply hold the buttons together until the light turns off. To re-activate and turn on, hold the buttons together until the light turns on.
- To use as part of sex, nestle it against the most sensitive intimate area and then invite a partner to join. The pressure and vibrations will be applied pleurably to both partners during sex.
